PREDICTED THAT OHIO SOLDIERS MAY LEAVE SOON

Gov. Jas. M. Cox States Reason Why Buckeye Boys Were Not Given Furloughs

DUE TO THE CONGESTED CONDITION OF RAILROADS

Impression Prevails Camp Sheridan Troops Will Soon Leave For Active Service

(Associated Press Telegram)
Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 26.—It developed here last night that Governor James M. Cox's reason for explaining in his address yesterday why the Ohio boys in camp were not permitted to go home Christmas was to offset the widely-spread report that the soldiers would have been able to make the journey had not arrangements been made for the Buckeye special.

The state executive, in clearing up the false report, asserted that the order which had held the men in camp was issued by the war department and that he had no jurisdiction over the guards, now that they are in the federal service. He explained further that the department's order was due to the congested condition of transportation.

Although the governor made no mention of the possibility of an early movement of the troops from here, the impression prevails among those who are acquainted with the situation that the Ohio boys may be on their way "somewhere" within five or six weeks. This it was said, might have had something to do with the government not granting furloughs, which would have resulted in an interruption of the preparedness plan for early active service.

Several days' delay in getting gifts to the camp was overcome, it is said, by operation of the Christmas special and the men were not permitted to experience the disappointment of feeling that grasped the men on the Mexican border last year.

While the train cost the state practically nothing, officers declare that it would have been a good investment had it incurred the expenditure of thousands of dollars. Every evidence of sadness was permitted to crop out as the visitors took leave last night—in many cases, probably, never to see the loved ones again.

Governor Cox and several members of his party remained here and spent most of today at camp. Tonight the executive will speak before the chamber of commerce, following a dinner given in his honor by the organization. Citizens from Tuskegee will arrive in Montgomery late today, returning tomorrow with the governor and a shooting party to the Big Lasie plantation for a quail hunt. John Burba, the executive hunting partner for 15 years, and who lives at Hodgenville, Ky.; Roy McGregor and Robert Ligon of Alabama, and Colonel Galbraith and Joseph A. Hall, compose the party. The birds, not having been molested for two months, are abundant and the men are contemplating on returning with a big haul.

The Tuskegee business men's club will entertain the party tomorrow night and on Friday another hunting trip will be taken.

Tonight will see the end of the troops' holiday period and beginning tomorrow the intensive training again will be under way.

TO DEDICATE NEW RIFLE RANGE AT CAMP SHERMAN

(Associated Press Telegram)
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, O., Dec. 26.—Camp Sherman selects in both the artillery and infantry branches of the service were still jubilant today over a number of things found in their Christmas stockings.

The men in the infantry, division headquarters, announced today, will definitely get to go on the rifle range Thursday, while their comrades of the artillery will start target practice on the new range, near Beverly, on January 7. Nor were the machine gunners forgotten, for it was said that they will be doing actual target work with their "suicide" guns before long.

The 322th light field artillery, composed of men from Butler, Preble and Montgomery counties in Ohio and of Washington and Beaver county selects in Pennsylvania, will have the honor of dedicating the new range, according to present plans. The three United States army three-inch pieces will be used in the practice work, which will include both direct and indirect shooting and at visible and invisible targets.

Trenches are being made on the new range, which is four miles long and about 1,000 yards wide, so as to simulate European battlefields and make it possible for the gunners to throw barrage fires. Telephone wires are being erected in order that the men can be informed as to their accuracy. Captain Tommy Martin of the French army, will act as advisor, although the firing will be under the direction of the regimental officers.

Colonel Dewitt, following instructions from Washington, is preparing to name officers from the 83d division to make a tour of the state and of the western Pennsylvania counties to instruct local draft boards in army methods of medical examination. An effort will be made to

MEXICAN BANDITS RAID AN AMERICAN RANCH ON XMAS DAY

(Associated Press Telegram)
Mafia, Tex., Dec. 26.—Fighting was believed to be in progress today, 20 miles southwest of here, between United States troops and Mexican bandits who looted the L. C. Brite ranch and killed Michael Welch, a veteran stage-driver, and his two Mexican passengers, wounded Sam Neill, foreman of the Brite ranch.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Mafia, Tex., Dec. 26.—American troops today were guarding all outlets to Van Horne canyon, where 100 Mexican bandits on Christmas morning raided the postoffice and general store on the Brite ranch, 27 miles southeast of here, killed Michael Welch, a veteran stage-driver, and his two Mexican passengers, wounded Sam Neill, foreman of the Brite ranch, and carried away booty estimated to be worth $7,000.

After the bandits disappeared over the rim rock which rises abruptly more than 1,000 feet above the Rio Grande, the soldiers who were in close pursuit, fired many rounds at them and are reported to have killed and wounded many of the Mexicans. The shooting compelled the bandits to abandon the horses on which they carried away the loot. Colonel Geo. T. Leghorne, in command of the American forces in the Big Bend expected the pursuit to be resumed at daybreak.

When the bandits attacked the ranch, Neill, with his wife and a number of ranch hands, barricaded themselves in a house until United States soldiers could be sent to their assistance.

Cavalrymen under command of Captain Leslie A. Sprinkle, were sent to the Brite ranch in automobiles, the soldiers leaving camp just a few minutes before mess call for their annual Christmas dinner was to have been sounded.

When the raiders sighted the approaching cavalry they abandoned the work of pillage and rode off over the rim of rock toward the south-west.

At the point where the bandits dropped from sight of the pursuing troops there is an abrupt descent of more than 1,000 feet. When the soldiers had gone as far as possible in automobiles they continued the pursuit on foot to the edge of the rim rock, where they did some expert shooting at the fleeing bandits at a distance of more than 1,000 yards.

HOLIDAY GIFTS PRESENTED BY THE RED CROSS SOCIETY

Venice, Tuesday, Dec. 25.—Holiday gifts from the American Red Cross were distributed in the Italian trenches along the lower Piave today by B. Harvey Carroll, Jr., American consul at Venice. Huge piles of gifts were taken on motor trucks to the various commands. Each man received tobacco, sweets, a hard hat and other presents. The local commanders and their men were enthusiastic in their expressions of thanks and the trip was a continuous manifestation of Italian friendship for America.

STEFANSEN AT FORTH YUKON

Ottawa, Dec. 26.—Vihjalmur Stefansson, the Arctic explorer, last heard from in a letter received in March, 1918, has arrived with his party at Fort Yukon, according to word received by the naval department.

INFLUENCE OF THE BOLSHEVIKI FAST DECLINING

Caused By Lack of Authority, Increase In Drunkenness and Food Scarcity

REPORTED THAT TROOPS ARE REFUSING TO FIGHT

German Troops Being Concentrated In Southwest To Assure Possession Harvest

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Dec. 26.—There have been occasional assertions in Petrograd dispatches that the influence and power of the Bolsheviks was waning but never with such unanimity as in special dispatches dated from the Russian capital Sunday and printed today. Nearly all make the point in one form or other that defection from the workmen's and soldiers' organization is growing constantly. Among causes alleged are general lack of authority, the increase in drunkenness, the reluctance of the population to work and the scarcity of foodstuffs. The main desire of the soldier is said to be for peace.

The correspondents cite instances of Bolshevik troops refusing to march, declining to attack the Ukrainians and permitting the Cossacks to disarm them without resistance.

Fighting, it is said, is the last thing they are willing or intend to do. A hostile spirit is reported to survive among the Baltic sailors and the Red Guard, but the former are not numerous enough to conquer the Ukrainians and the Red Guard is largely untrained. It is reported therefore that war against the Ukraine probably will not materialize on any serious scale.

Bolshevik leaders, the Petrograd correspondent of The Morning Post says, appear to be becoming conscious of hopeless failure, while the correspondent of The Daily News writes: "There is a tremendous and growing opposition to the Bolsheviks among all classes. Men who formerly supported them are turning against them and German hirings is a common term of denunciation. There is much talk of meeting the present reign of terror with counter measures and bomb throwing is freely suggested as the only method of exerting pressure on the Bolsheviks. This is not merely idle talk as those who say it are those who already have thrown bombs."

Reports of civil war activities, however, continue to be received. The Bolshevik government declares definitely that its troops have captured Kaharkova, Nicolaev and are threatening the Ukrainians' hold on Odessa. The Cossacks report the strengthening of their hold on the Donetz basin. None of the reports, however, is more precise than recent reports of a similar nature. In the meantime nothing more is heard of the efforts at reconciliation between the Bolsheviks and the Ukrainians.

Interest in the coming of the constituent assembly is said to have re-awakened remarkably and demands for its convocation are being made, it is reported, even by the most ignorant classes and also by the troops of the Petrograd garrison.

It appears that the Bolsheviks' commissioners are trying, although vainly, to shift some of the discontented military units from the capital. A Reuter dispatch from Petrograd says the Praobrazhensky regiment has declared its disbelief in the intention of the Bolshevik government to open the constituent assembly and has refused to relinquish guard of the Tauride palace until the assembly meets. The Semenovsky guard regiment has resolved not to arrest members of the constituent assembly no matter what orders are received.

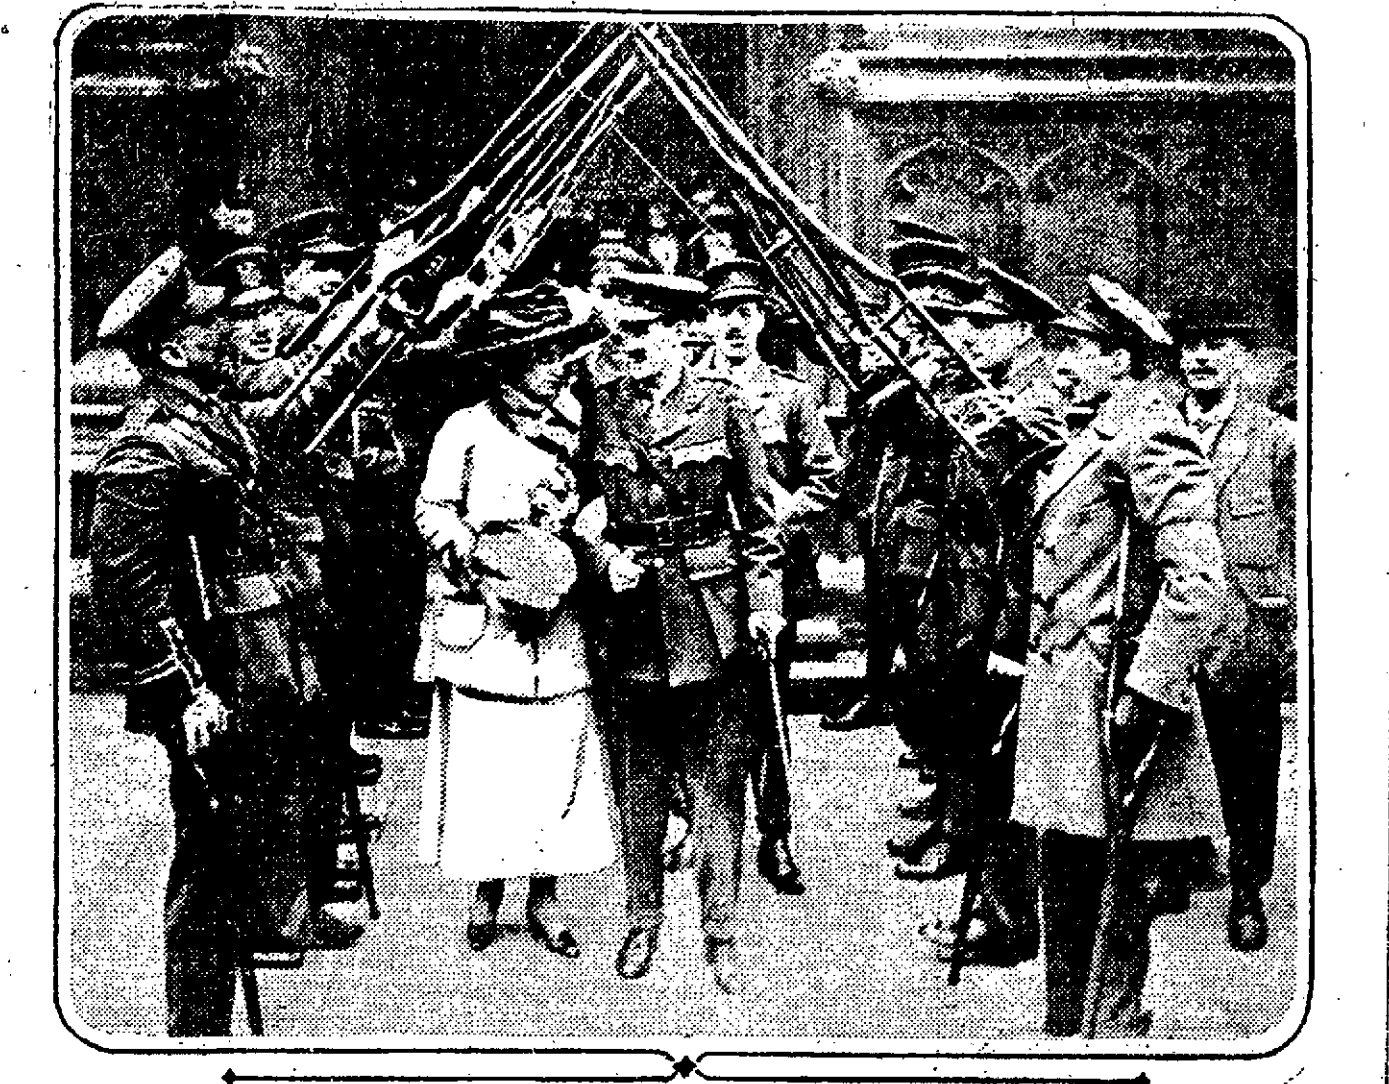

It is reported however that the Bolsheviks intend to control admission to the assembly by issuing tickets. This is sharply opposed by the social revolutionists who are credited with the determination to convene the assembly in any case. In consequence of the postponement of the peace negotiations at Brest-Litovsk because the Germans were not ready to reply to the Russian terms, the Russian delegates are reported to be returning to Petrograd, where apparently they are expected to await the arrival of the delegation from the enemy powers who is to participate in a conference for discussion of the political aspects of an eventual peace conference.

Various explanations are offered in Petrograd dispatches of the purpose of German concentration of troops in the southwest. One suggestion is that part of these forces will be sent to Asia Minor.

It is predicted a large force will be retained in the southwest to assure possession of the valuable Russian harvest.

A Reuter dispatch from Petrograd reports the arrest and imprisonment in the Fortress of St. Peter and St. Paul, of M. Vyshnegradsky and M. Tautof, managing directors of the International Commercial Bank and the Russo Asiatic Bank in consequence of the mention of their names in an intercepted letter wherein General Alexiev, former commander in chief begged Professor Paul Milukovich to help them.

CRUTCHES, NOT SWORDS, MAKE ARCH FOR A BRITISH ARMY OFFICER AND HIS BRIDE

Lieut. J. H. Budd and bride, who was Miss W. Hiley, pass under crutch arch.

Wounded men formed the guard of honor at the recent wedding of Lieut. J. H. Budd and Miss W. Hiley in London. With their crutches, instead of their swords, they formed an archway for bride and groom as they left the church.

WOMAN DIRECTED OPERATIONS OF THE GERMAN SPY

(Associated Press Telegram)
San Francisco, Dec. 26.—A woman, designated only as "H", and said to be prominent in the German secret service, directed the activities of Franz Schulenberg, alleged master spy held here on a presidential warrant, according to information divulged today by federal officials. Schulenberg is said to have been active in plans to destroy bridges and public buildings in Canada and shipping and warehouses in Pacific ports.

Officials said the woman barely escaped arrest here four weeks ago, the day before Schulenberg was captured. The clue to her part in Schulenberg's operations was revealed in a letter found among his effects. It instructed Schulenberg to meet her in Los Angeles. The letter was postmarked Cleveland, Ohio, investigation showed, officials said, that the woman had been an agent of Wolf von Feil, former secretary of Franz von Papen, military attaché of the German embassy at Washington and alleged head of the German espionage system in this country. She was described as a person of birth, of education, a brunette and 35 years old.

According to federal officials the woman sent Schulenberg to the United States in 1914 for the alleged purpose of assisting in the maintenance of contraband wireless stations for the purpose of gaining military information and transmitting it to Berlin. Further revelations concerning Schulenberg's activities disclosed today showed that in February, 1915, he inserted an advertisement in Spokane, Wash., newspapers looking to the purchase of a tract of land on which to colonize several hundred Spanish families. These families, federal officials said, were Hindus and the purpose of their colonization was to permeate them easy entrance into Canada where they were to obtain military information and facts concerning the movements of Canadian vessels to assist in raider warfare conducted in the Pacific ocean by the Germans. The colonization plan did not materialize.

Some of Schulenberg's activities, according to the authorities, have been traced to Ram Chandra, a Hindu on trial here with thirty other persons charged with attempting to foment a revolt against British rule in India. Ram Chandra and several payments of money to Schulenberg, officials said.

Schulenberg, according to federal officials, was a deserter from the German army and was activated only by the hope of financial gain. They said he would not admit his connection with the woman agent.

SAYS TOBACCO IS NECESSITY AND NOT A LUXURY

(Associated Press Telegram)
London, Dec. 11.—(By Mail)—Tobacco is a necessity, not a luxury, declares Lord Rhonda, the food controller, in a statement published here. "We must have tobacco," he says, "I believe that its loss would be a national misfortune. It means much to both the manual laborer and to him who works with his brains. Men would eat a great deal more if they did not have tobacco. I hold that the deprivation of it would work great discomfort."

BELIEVED BANDAGES FOR THE RED CROSS HAD BEEN POISONED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Cleveland, Dec. 26.—A German plot to poison Red Cross bandages and spread wholesale death among the soldiers of America and her allies has been exposed and frustrated in Cleveland. Revelations of the conspiracy were made today when it became known that department of justice agents were hunting the perpetrators of the deed.

Three thousand four hundred surgical dressings, rolled by patriotic women in Toledo, were infected with a mysterious greenish poison while in transit between Toledo and Cleveland.

Immediately everyone of the 3,400 bandages were burned. They were destroyed secretly in the rear of the Red Cross warehouse here.

WAS NOT GERMAN PLOT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Toledo, Dec. 26.—Concerning the Cleveland story that a German plot had been discovered as a result of which 3,400 Red Cross bandages had been poisoned while in transit between Toledo and Cleveland, Miss Florence Hardee, director of Red Cross surgical dressing work here, said: "When the cloth for the dressings was purchased here of a local dry goods company, it was observed that it had a greenish tint. Examination disclosed that it was due to some imperfection in manufacture. We were convinced that it was not harmful and used the cloth."

THE DEFENSE MAY CLOSE IN LEHMAN CASE THIS EVENING

Wauscon, O., Dec. 26.—Frederick Lehman, accused of the murder of his young wife, completed his testimony in his own behalf today. The defense probably will close its case tonight.

Lehman's attorneys say their last trump card will be the production of a witness whose identity is not divulged, who will testify that he saw some man, other than Lehman, buy the revolver with which Grace Lehman was killed, in a hardware store at Delta. Two witnesses for the prosecution have testified that Lehman himself or a man who resembles him closely, bought this revolver at Delta.

NEIGHBOR KILLED BY SHOTGUN TRAP

(Associated Press Telegram)
Belmont, O., Dec. 26.—When Roy Moore went to pay a Christmas night call to his neighbor, Stephen W. Haynes, he was shot through the heart and killed instantly as he opened the door of the Haynes home. Haynes, who was not a home had set a shotgun trap for a thief who, he reports, had robbed him of $50 recently. The gun was fastened above the door, with a cord running from the trigger to the door knob. It is supposed Moore was killed shortly after 7:00 o'clock. When Haynes returned home two hours later, he stumbled over the body. The coroner and prosecuting attorney are investigating.

STRONG DEFENSE OF ITALIANS ON THE PIAVE FRONT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy, Tuesday, Dec. 25.—A general commanding an army corps on the Piave front took the correspondent along the line occupied by his corps today and pointed out the Austro-German nest on the west bank of the river, which is the only foothold he has succeeded in maintaining.

The main purpose of the Italian commander was to carry a holiday greeting to his men in the first line trenches but incidentally this visit to the extreme front gave an opportunity for the general to explain the lay of the land and while the enemy was finding himself able to hang on.

As the party moved forward it was noted that the defenses had been highly organized so that any sudden rush of the enemy would meet tremendous resistance. The defenses comprise a string of trenches fortified for defense with masses of tangled wire and constructions after the Chevaux de Frise order, with numerous sharp projections.

Entering the first line trenches the general led the way. The ground in front was covered with low bushes and scrubby vines running down to the water's edge. Behind this ran a high earthen embankment originally erected as a dyke but now serving the enemy as a refuge against petty shelling. In the foreground were three large stone farm houses that had been torn to pieces by Italian shell fire. One of these had had the roof, the upper floors and two wings blown off, while the jagged walls of the first story were still standing. It was still used, the general said, for the enemy's machine guns. They were silent then, as the holiday season had by common consent afforded a truce. The heavy Austrian guns were heard now and then.

The general stated that the enemy force in the Zenson curve was about three battalions, or 2,000 men, with an exceptionally large supply of machine guns. Their communications were principally operated in the night hours.

The enemy's foothold on the west bank of the Piave here was not regarded by the general as a serious menace to the Italians as it was not a base which would be augmented by an increase of the forces. It could be cleared out at any time, he said, but the effort was not worth the sacrifice it would require in the face of the machine guns.

The bend was completely controlled and hemmed in and it was better, he thought, to let the enemy sacrifice his men in holding a position useless to him.

The general had a cheery word for the men in the trenches, presenting many of them with holiday gifts and giving encouragement and praise to all. The men were in the best of spirits, looked sturdy and were conditioned and were unanimous in assuring their commander that they could hold the enemy against any further advance.

WILL ACT AS GOD-MOTHERS FOR MANY BELGIAN ORPHANS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Dec. 26.—Several Columbus working girls, it became known today, received notices from wealthy Columbus women in their Christmas mail that money had been subscribed in their names for the care of Belgian war orphans for one year. The working girls were requested to act as god-mothers for the Belgian children and to write them and take an interest in them. One thousand dollars was subscribed for each orphan.

GERMANS TAKING TROOPS FROM THE EASTERN SECTORS

In Direct Opposition to Provisions of Russo-German Armistice

AWAIT REINFORCEMENTS BEFORE MAKING ATTACK

But Little Progress is Being Made In Peace Negotiations.

(Compiled from A. P. Dispatches.)
While their guns bombard the western front, the Germans are taking troops from the eastern front for use elsewhere despite the provision of the Russo-German armistice prohibiting such action. The artillery activity in France has been moderate over most of the front and more violent on the right bank of the Meuse, northeast of Verdun, the scene of the German attack nearly two years ago.

German infantry has not been active and it is probable that Field Marshal von Hindenburg is waiting for more reinforcements before making his heralded attack. Russian advances telling of the German withdrawals in the east add that some of the troops are being taken to the Rumanian front. Rumania is not taking part in the peace negotiations and the Ukraine, which lies beyond Moldavia and Bessarabia, is opposed to the Bolsheviks.

South of Juvincourt in the Rheims sector of Champagne, the French have carried out a raid into the German lines and brought back prisoners. On the British portion of the front there have been raids in addition to the artillery duel, but no large operations are yet indicated.

On the northern front, the Austro-German tactics appear to be to strike alternatively at vital points on either side of the Brenita. Checked at Monte Asolung last week, the enemy has struck toward the Brenzela valley west of the river. After two days of bitter fighting the Italians have regained possession of lost positions on the Col Del Rosso west of the river and have attacked the Austro-German positions on Monte Pertica east of the river. Berlin claims the capture of 3,000 prisoners in the gaining of the Col Del Rosso, which later was lost to the Italians.

Leon Trotsky, the Bolshevik foreign minister, has protested to the Germans against the transference of troops from the eastern front, but also has ordered Russian factories to stop the manufacture of munitions. He did not indicate whether his government would take any other step against German violation of the armistice.

Peace negotiations at Brest-Litovsk apparently are making little progress. The Germans have delayed their answer to the Bolshevik terms and it is reported that the conference would be transferred to Stockholm shortly. In the meantime the majority party in the constituent assembly, the social revolutionists, has convoked the assembly to meet January 2, despite Bolshevik disapproval.

German emergency has been called officially to the attention of the American troops in France. An American sentry has been found with his throat cut and an official bulletin says: "He must have been so killed after capture by a force of Germans which surprised him." Information of enemy terrorism in driving women and children from their homes in the occupied sections of France and Belgium to make room for German troops, soldiers and war material also has been given the troops.

Positions on and around Col Del Rosso, on the Italian northern front are still in dispute, according to today's official statement from Berlin, which reports another violent counter attack there by the Italians. This is declared to have broken down with heavy losses.

The latest report on the status of the Russo-German peace negotiations is that after a day's postponement of the resumption of the parity at Brest-Litovsk the Germans have asked for a postponement of virtually a month, proposing a delay until January 24. This report comes in a news agency dispatch from Petrograd.

ARIZONA GOVERNORSHIP TURNED OVER TO HUNT

Phoenix, Ariz., Dec. 26.—Thomas E. Campbell turned over the governorship of Arizona to Governor Geo. W. P. Hunt on Christmas, in obedience to the mandate of the supreme court of the state, which found that Governor Hunt was the legally elected governor by a plurality of 43 votes. The ceremony was without feature. Hunt's first official act was to tender Campbell a place on the state tax commission. Mr. Campbell declined.

AGED WOMAN MURDERED

(Associated Press Telegram)
Columbus, Dec. 26.—Her head beaten to a pulp by an iron bar, the body of Mrs. Sarah E. Mulford, aged 77, was found early today behind the counter of her little grocery store. The store was in confusion and the police believe the aged woman was killed by a robber late Christmas evening. Two empty pocketbooks were found on the floor.

koff the constitutional democratic leader to interest himself in obtaining 300,000 rubles to assist starving families of imprisoned officers.
Referring to the arrest of Colonel Kolpashnikoff, attached to the American Red Cross mission to Rumania, the Petrograd correspondent of The Post says it has been suggested that the letter alleged to have been sent to the colonel by Colonel Anderson, head of the mission stating that the American ambassador, David R. Francis, was ready to advance 100,000 rubles to the account of the Red Cross, was a forgery. Such things are not uncommon now, he adds.
The same correspondent telegraphs that the British ambassador, Sir George Buchanan, published on Sunday a statement refuting the charge of interference in the internal affairs of Russia and adding that as there are now three independent republics in Russia it is difficult to avoid the appearance of having relations with more than one.
It is reported from Brest-Litovsk by way of Petrograd that Finland has appealed to Germany to recognize its independence and that the Germans express their willingness to do so. Leon Trotsky, the Bolsheviki foreign minister is said to have shown his irritation because the Finns applied to the Germans direct instead of through the Bolsheviki commissaries. A Stockholm dispatch to The Post records the arrival there of a Finnish delegation to ask Sweden's recognition of the independence of the Finns. According to the same correspondent an anarchistic condition prevails in parts of Finland. The Swedish consul at Helsingfors has sent an urgent appeal to his government to protect Sweden at Abo, where there is a reign of terror. Bandits are said to be running wild in Uleaborg and in various other districts. The Stockholm Tidningen reports an agreement between the Finnish senate and the Baltic fleet committee under which Finland virtually will buy its independence for 50,000,000 rubles.

standardize the methods of examining.
The war department order indicated that the local draft board examiners had not always produced uniform and satisfactory results and an effort will be made by the Camp Sherman officers to clear up any difficulties.
Preparations are being made to handle the hundreds of candidate officers who will be available for the third training camp, which will start one week from Saturday. The selects here who are hoping to be named for the camp are eager for the announcement of names of the eligibles. Approximately 400 men will be named before the first of the year. Officers to act as instructors for the training camp have not been named by the war department.

PROBING THE COAL SHORTAGE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, Dec. 26.—Inquiry into the coal shortage displaced the sugar investigation on the program of the senate manufacturers committee today and Fuel Administrator Garfield was summoned as the first witness.
The committee plans to take up the sugar problem again Friday and probably will allow Food Administrator Hoover to reply to charges made by Claus A. Spreckles, president of the Federal Sugar Refining Company, that the sugar shortage was caused by the food administration's fixed import price.

PENNSYLVANIA LIVE DIVIDEND

COMMISSION REFUSES TO BUY LICKING CO. BONDS

When the present board of county commissioners and the auditor came into office they found an empty treasury. Three pikes under construction, bonds and interest, loans from local banks, bridges unsafe for traffic, the November 6th election expenses, and other expenses created by law to the amount of $99,500 and no provision for the payment thereof.
A bond issue was prepared and under the law submitted to the Industrial Commission of Ohio and refused, but they gave out that in the event the bonds did not sell the commission at a later date might take them over.
The bonds were duly advertised and no bids received and Auditor Wilson resubmitted them to the commission at par with no success. This brought forth some severe criticism by Licking's auditor and it was suggested that another application to the aforesaid Ohio (Duff) Industrial Commission would bring forth results.
The president of the board of commissioners, Mr. J. E. McCracken, and the county auditor Mr. Fred S. Wilson, immediately visited Columbus and there had the assurance that there was plenty of money in the hands of the commission and they were told that in all probability the commission would take over the Licking county bonds. The commissioners and auditor felt sure that the secretary of state, who lives in Licking county, would have sufficient influence with the commission to insure the completion of the transaction but it seems for some reason the commission did not vote to buy the bonds and hence Licking county is made to suffer. If the work is to proceed the money must be borrowed from some of the local financial institutions at 5 per cent interest or else the bonds must be readvertised and offered at a rate of 6 instead of 5 per cent.

BURKE AND COFFMAN RECEIVE REWARD FOR CAPTURE OF ROBBERS

Ex-Patrolman Chas. O. Burke, who captured the Granville bank robbers several months ago, was called to the Park National bank Monday evening, and was presented with a purse of $500 by Charles B. Slack, cashier of the bank. Mr. Slack stated that it was the reward offered by the bank for the apprehension of the thieves, and, although it was customary in such cases to wait until conviction, the directors had waived that course and authorized him to pay the reward. He complimented Mr. Burke very highly for his shrewdness and sagacity, and stated that if there were more men of his calibre in police departments of our cities there would be less crime.
Mr. Burke immediately turned over $250 of the reward to Daniel Coffman, West Main street. Coffman, having accompanied Burke on the expedition and drove his machine, tendering the same to Burke after hearing of the robbery and holdup. The reward money came as a nice Christmas present and was greatly appreciated by the recipient.

FIRE AT LONG BEACH

(Associated Press Telegram)
Long Beach, N. Y., Dec. 26.—Fire today destroyed four buildings on the boardwalk, which parallels the bathing beach, and burned away a section of the walk, causing a loss estimated at $200,000.
Reports of incendiaryism are being investigated, the authorities said.

DEATH LIST REACHES TWENTY

WANTED--MAIL ONLY ADVERTISEMENT IN OHIO REVEILLE

Mr. William McPeck, 57 Gamor avenue has just received a copy of "The Ohio Rainbow Reveille," official organ of the 166th Infantry, sent by his son, Francis McPeck, who is "somewhere in France."
"Amexforce" and not "Sammy's" is the name American soldiers fighting in France love to call themselves. All through the publication, dated December 5, the American troops are referred to as "Amexforce." The reading of the unique paper, published for the benefit of the Ohio boys and their "folks back home" carries the caption "Amexforce; that's us."
"Amexforce" isn't Greek. It's just an abbreviation for "American expeditionary force."
This last edition of The Reveille to reach Ohio outlines the censorship rules and carries brief items informing the rainbow division boys what the United States congress is doing about the serious coal shortage, and the verdict in the John de Saullies murder trial at Mineola, N. Y.
Following are the censorship rules:
"Prevention of the leakage of military information is essential to the success. Do not carry on person unnecessary orders, maps or papers. No mention may be made of the course of instruction given the troops. Details with reference to character or supply of equipment is ahead.
"No information may be disclosed concerning the physical or moral condition of our own or allied troops. Criticism of opinions, commissioned or non-commissioned officers, or of the condition of life or substance is prohibited. No photographs or negatives may be sent to any person. No code-messages permitted. Report at once any attempt or stranger to extract information and operation of enemy aircraft."
The Reveille makes mention of the Ohio draft troops in training at Chillicothe by saying: "Nothing to report from the draftees save that they are to get a furlough to spend Christmas at home. Balmv breeze in the draft that put the chill in Chillicothe." A one-line "filler" in Mr. McPeck's copy reads, "Though—Brains in action."
Only one advertisement is carried in the two-page paper, and it contains only two words: "Wanted—Mail!"

THE SUPREME COURT REFUSES NEW TRIAL TO MURDERER SMALL

(Associated Press Telegram)
Concord, N. H., Dec. 26.—The supreme court today refused a new trial to Frederick L. Small, formerly a Boston broker, awaiting execution on January 15 for the murder of his wife, Mrs. Florence A. Small, at their home near Lake Umbagog, September 28, 1916.
The court overruled exception filed by Small's counsel charging that much of the technical evidence introduced in his trial was incompetent and cited as improper the language of Attorney General James R. Tuttle, who declared that the murder of Mr. Small in her cottage which later was burned, was the most deliberate and brutal in the history of New Hampshire.
It was by the merest chance that neighbors, dining in the ruins of her cottage for the body of Mr. Small, discovered evidence of murder. The woman had been beaten over the head, shot through the right temple and strangled with a cord.
As the body was carried down with the debris of the cottage, the head fell into a pool of water and was preserved.
A joint life insurance policy for $20,000 taken out by Small and his wife, payable to the survivor, the state contended supplied the motive. The defense claims that Mrs. Small was killed by a tramp who set the cottage on fire to conceal the crime.

DIES AS RESULT OF AMPUTATION AFTER INJURY

Unable to withstand the shock of the accident and the subsequent removal of a foot, George Lashley, aged 26, of Steubenville, who was struck by a train at the Pennsylvania station Saturday night, died at the city hospital Wednesday morning at 1 o'clock.
His father, mother and brother were with him at the time of his death. The deceased resided in Steubenville, but had been living in Dennison recently. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lashley, two brothers, Walter and Leo Lashley, and one sister, Adelaide, all of Steubenville, and another sister Mrs. Charles McCarrell of Sapulpa, Okla.
He was a member of the Knights of Columbus, and the body was removed to the McGonagle undertaking parlors and will be sent to Steubenville this evening.
The funeral will be held Saturday morning from St. Peter's church, and interment will be made in Mt. Calvary cemetery there.

MAGAZINES FOR SOLDIERS TO BE CURRENT AND CLEAN

"Notice to reader: When you finish reading this magazine, place a one-cent stamp on this notice, hand same to any postal employee, and it will be placed in the hands of our soldiers and sailors at the front. No wrapping; no address. A. S. Burleson, postmaster general."
Many of the magazines carry the above notice on the cover-page, and hundreds of Newark people have been acting up the suggestion to forward these periodicals to the soldiers in France.
Postmaster Mercer and Assistant Postmaster Farmer, however, desire to announce that many of the unwrapped and unaddressed magazines dropped in the mail boxes are useless for the purpose intended, some of them being so old as no longer to be of any interest, some are torn and soiled and unfit for further use, while others are of such a character as to be wholly unsuited for reading matter for soldiers and sailors.
Postmasters have been asked to impress upon their patrons that the publications mailed under the arrangement referred to should consist of clean copies of current or comparatively recent issues of magazines devoted to literature or containing matter of general interest. These magazines are distributed in a very general manner among the American soldiers and sailors.

THOUSANDS OF CHILD "REJECTS"

SCHOOL NURSE ASSISTING DOCTOR IN EXAMINING APPLICANTS FOR WORKING PAPERS

Children Refused Working Papers, but Nurses Fit Them For Industry.

Working papers are denied to more than a thousand children each year in New York city because they are not physically able to work.

Every rejected child is turned over to the nurses of the Bureau of Child Hygiene, and they are responsible for fitting the unfit for industry.

The nurses see that minor defects of eyesight, hearing, teeth and breathing are corrected by taking the children to clinics, referring them to school physicians or hospitals. Their serious cases, however, is with the chronic cases. It requires more than mere nursing skill to handle these cases. Sometimes it calls for social genius.

This is illustrated by the very typical instance of a girl of fifteen who applied at the opening of school for her working papers. She was examined, and the physicians found that she had chronic heart trouble. To allow her to go to work, would almost be equivalent to allowing her to commit suicide.

When she was told she could not have her papers a look of absolute despair came over the girl's face.

"But I must go to work," said said. "My stepfather can't keep me. There are five children in the family. My brother, who took care of me, has been drafted. What can I do?"

The solution of the problem was put up to the nurse. The first thing she did was to get the girl a scholarship—that is, a weekly sum paid to her family in lieu of the wages she might have made. The next thing was to induce her to go to a camp under city supervision where she could be built up by the aid of good food and fresh air.

The nurse will keep in touch with the girl when she returns and see that she gets suitable work.

Day in and day out the nurses of the department are solving similar problems. It is because such humane and important community service must be maintained that the Committee on Nursing of the Council of National Defense in Washington is urging young women to enter hospital training schools to fit themselves to fill the gaps left by the nurses called to service abroad.

SOCIAL EVENTS

SOCIETY EDITOR, AUTO 'PHONE 3123.

McCormack-Shepardson.
The marriage of Mrs. Mary Stuart Shepardson to Mr. George Benedict McCormack was solemnized on Christmas eve at the "Little Church Around the Corner" in New York City. The bride was attended by Miss Isabel McCormack, a daughter of the bridegroom, and Mr. Fitch C. Bryant officiated as best man. Only a few relatives and friends were present.

Mrs. McCormack is the daughter of Mrs. Ross Smith of 157 North Fifth street, and has a wide circle of friends in Newark. She was married in 1895 to Dr. Daniel Shepardson, Jr., of Granville, and for ten years Dr. and Mrs. Shepardson were engaged in evangelistic work throughout the United States. Dr. Shepardson died in 1905 in Honolulu at the beginning of a tour around the world. Mrs. Shepardson later completed the tour alone in about five years. At Singapore she met Mr. McCormack and formed a friendship that has been ripened during the ensuing years. Since her return she has been engaged in lecturing principally on Oriental subjects, in connection with the Chautauque circuit.

Mr. McCormack is a member of the American Type Founders company of New York. He was manager of the London branch for awhile and in recent years has travelled extensively as an efficient engineer in various parts of the world. Mr. and Mrs. McCormack will live at 433 Central Park West, New York City.

The dancing party given by the Misses Martha and Bertha Fulton, at their home, 940 East Broadway, on Christmas eve, was attended by a company of seventy-five guests. The affair was in compliment to Miss Rachel Hanna and Lieutenant William Duane Fulton, Jr., who are to be married Thursday evening. Pointsettias and evergreen formed the decorations. The party was chaperoned by the parents of the bridegroom-elect, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Fulton, the parents of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. James Burns Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. White and Mrs. W. S. Hanna. Several guests from Newark, the former home of the Fulton family, were present.—Columbus Dispatch.

Tobacco Soldier Married.
The marriage of Harry Cramer of Toboso, and Miss Sue Newkirk of Zanesville, is announced. Mr. Cramer is with the Ohio soldiers at Camp Sheridan, Alabama.

One of the prettiest dances of the Christmas season was given by the Phi Sigma Chi fraternity in the Elks new dance hall. One of the features of the evening was the Christmas tree and the numerous gifts for the members. The hall was beautifully arranged with American flags and the service flag of the chapter which contains 30 stars. The National colors were combined with the Christmas greens throughout the hall. The dancers were:

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Swisher, Mrs. C. E. Thompson, Troy, Misses Amy Kuster, Margaret Moore, Nellie Morse, Justine Pearsall, Lea Ginter, Dorothy Wilson, Elizabeth Clayton, Alta Beall, Dorothy Glenn, Dorothy Kuster, Anna Haynes, Mildred Gore, Lene Vogelmeier, Nell Russell, Geneva Guthrie, Mary Miller, Louise Henderson, Mary Winder, Ruth Dyer, Helen Rossel, Adria Harrison, Ann Hayden, Helen Loose, Doris Swisher, Mary Simpson, Grace Jones, Mary Elizabeth Avey, Margery Carr, Mary Louise Smith, Anna McCarthy, Frances Fitzgibbons, Eva Swern, Hazel Brickle, Leontine Moore, Clotilde Howard, Margaret Bader, Virginia Warner, Eleanor Johnson, Lydia Cooperider, Lillian Lindroth, Martha Sachs, Nellie Frenier, Nell Flory, Lillian Seymour, Grace Doyle, Elizabeth Higgs, Neva Hulshizer, Elizabeth Kibler, Camille Winder, Florence Ottman of Utica, Thelma Mazyer, Ruth Lindorf, Virginia Martin, Gladys Lindorf.

Success of a New Remedy
For Backache, Kidneys, Rheumatism

WILLIAMSBURG, OHIO.—"This is an expression of my gratitude. I was seriously affected for years with a complication of diseases, especially of the kidneys and bladder, and tried quite a number of medicines and doctors' prescriptions with no benefit. I was recommended by a friend to give a trial to Dr. Pierce's Anuric, which I did by ordering a trial treatment; that was very effective. I then procured a full treatment, and after taking same was restored to health, for which I am extremely thankful."—MARK CURRIE, Box 341.

BERLIN HEIGHTS, OHIO.—"I am writing to state what a wonderful medicine Dr. Pierce's Anuric is for rheumatism. I feel it my duty to recommend these tablets to anyone who needs them. They helped me, and they will help others."—Mrs. J. M. BREWSTER, Box 94, Route 1.

NOTE: Folks in town and adjoining counties are delighted with the results they have obtained by using ANURIC, the new & discovery of Dr. Pierce, who is head of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, in Buffalo, N. Y. Those who started the day with a backache, stiff legs, arms and muscles, and an aching head (worn out before the day began because they were in and out of bed half a dozen times at night) are appreciating the perfect rest, comfort, and new strength they obtained from Doctor Pierce's Anuric Tablets, double strength. To prove that this is a certain uric acid solvent and conquers headache, kidney and bladder diseases and rheumatism, if you've never used the Anuric, cut this out and send ten cents to Dr. Pierce for a large sample package. This will prove to you that Anuric is many times more active than lithia in eliminating uric acid. If you are a sufferer, go to your best druggist and ask for a small bottle of Anuric, Hull-Whittaker.

On Christmas night at 7:30 o'clock the marriage of Miss Hazel Ione Whittaker and Mr. Alonzo Edward Hull was solemnized at the home of the bride in 130 Maholin street. The appointments were military, the national colors being used in profusion in honor of the bridegroom, who is with Battery B at Camp Sherman.

The ring service of the Lutheran church was read by Rev. G. Bohon Schmitt, and the bride was attended by Miss Hazel Hull, while the bridegroom's best man was Mr. Harry Whittaker.

At the conclusion of the marriage service a wedding dinner of delightful appointment was served to the members of the immediate families. As the bridegroom was granted only a short furlough he returns to Camp Sherman this evening.

Moore-Holtzberry.
A pretty wedding was solemnized Christmas evening at 6 o'clock when the marriage of Miss Burdelle Holtzberry of Bowers avenue and Mr. Frank R. Moore of Columbus was solemnized at the Holtzberry home.

The rooms were festooned with the green and red of the Christmas tree, and Rev. Mr. Tibbles of Reynoldsburg read the service. The bride wore an afternoon frock of sand color with gold lace, while her bridesmaid, Miss Vaida Viall, wore a dress of blue taffeta. The bridal bouquet was of roses and lilies of the valley. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Stanley Moore of Columbus.

Following the service a wedding dinner was served to the members of the immediate families. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. S. M. Holtzberry, and Mr. and Mrs. Moore will make their home in Columbus.

The luncheon of the University club, just recently organized, was held at the Sherwood Hotel this afternoon, and about thirty alumni and present students home on vacations were in attendance.

The meeting was called to order by the temporary chairman, Charles L. Flory, and the committee which was appointed at the last meeting to draw up by-laws and a constitution reported progress, and the organization will be made permanent and later club rooms will be maintained.

The social committee reported a dancing party would be given on Friday evening of this week at Assembly Hall, dancing from 8 to 1, and the party will be an informal one. Any college man in the city can secure a ticket for the party at Hall's pharmacy.

THE COURTS

Divorce Refused.
In the case of Guy Bazler vs. Clara Bazler. Petition for divorce refused, and court ordered plaintiff to pay to defendant five dollars per week alimony.

Alimony Petition.
Lulu A. White vs. Howard S. White. Petition for alimony. Court ordered defendant to pay plaintiff $30 per month.

Road Petition.
A petition was filed in probate court today by J. E. Cook and others to change the course of the Newark-Mt. Vernon road, on the northern boundary line of Newark township where the B. & O. railroad is crossed by the road. The petition asks that the road run parallel with the tracks instead of crossing to the other side of the tracks.

Justice Scott's Court.
Sam Trumbue was fined five dollars and the costs in Justice F. S. Scott's court on a charge of intoxication.

Real Estate Transfers.
George Devore to Ed D. Simpson; real estate in New Lexington, Perry county, $1, etc.
Catherine Tinkle to Shelda Ashcraft; real estate in Madison township, $1, etc.

Marriage Licenses.
Herbert E. Farr, 31, a clerk, and Miss Beacie McGrier, 26, both of Newark. Rev. R. E. Carman to officiate.

Run Out of Tags.
Records in the county auditor's office showed that there had been 2327 dogs registered. There are about 673 dogs in the county that are as yet unregistered. There were only 2,500 tags ordered from the factory by the commissioners, so it will be necessary to place another order.

Injunction Granted.
An injunction was granted in common pleas court today in the case of John Donovan, Joseph Fortie, Otto E. Courter vs. John McCracken. The injunction was against the Rittenhouse ditch in Lima township.

Making the Rounds.

PICTURE HAT IS WELCOMED

Big Headgear, With Wide, Sweeping Brim, Friend of Woman Whose Beauty Is Waning.

Welcome to many women is the return of the picture hat. For afternoon wear with costumes of elegance, and in restaurant and lodge in the evening, to carry out gracefully the sinuous lines of the present silhouette, the big hat, wide of brim and bowl-like of crown, is ideal, says the New York Herald. Welcome, too, is it to the woman approaching the thirties, for then she commences to need the shadow of brim and the softness of tulle, furs and lace near her face. There are little fine lines to conceal, a trained look in the eyes, a droop to the mouth, that tell of the disillusion of life, born bravely, perhaps, showing only in the face. By shading the eyes, by graceful outline of curving brim, by the coquettish pose on the head, tired eyes are shaded into pretty wistfulness; cheek depression melts into the soft tulle of the brim, instead of being sharply silhouetted against an unfriendly background. Then, too, the hair is covered—hair that is often a bit lustreless or graying.

Lacking beauty, let us "camouflage" under the scenery of a becoming hat—the most enticing article of woman's dress.

MATERIALS FOR THE WRAP

Self-Brocades in Soft Satin or in Satin and Velvet Preferred by Some to Gorgeous Metallics.

For those who do not care for the gorgeous metallics and the luminous velvets there are self-brocades in soft satin or in satin and velvet, which are decidedly worth while for the wrap.

In some instances these come in dull gray, which combines beautifully with chinchilla or with better grades of squirrel. And right here it is worth noting that Austrian opossum is back and is being used alike for evening and day coats.

Kolinsky is another fur to which the Paris and American designers have been partial in its association with rich wraps. Ermine, of course, is considered the fur par excellence for evening wear.

It is wonderfully alluring when associated with the beautiful velvets or with dark brocades. It does not seem to be as effective when it is used to trim the metallic garments, perhaps because the latter need a dark fur to bring out their special beauty.

GOOD YEAR FOR MADE-OVERS

Economy the Growth in Providing Clothing for Grown-Ups as Well as for the Children.

Dresses made entirely of velvet or velveteen are considered very smart for girls of all ages, from the very little girl of five or six years to the twelve-year-old, but when other materials than velvet or velveteen are selected, it is usually noted that either two colors or two materials are combined.

Plain serge may be combined with plaid, velvet or velveteen may be combined with serge or wool jersey or with taffeta, etc.

This state of affairs as regards styles serves the same excellent purpose in dressing the younger members of the family as in outfitting the grownups. That is, economy may be served without appearance suffering, as last-season garments may be brought attractively up-to-date at slight additional expense.

Washed out - or fresh as new?

Boiling and hard rubbing give fabrics that "washed out" look. They destroy the nap that marks a garment as new.

The surest way to keep fabrics fresh and dainty is to wash with Fels-Naptha soap. It cleans without boiling; without hard rubbing.

Try Fels-Naptha next washday. Its savings are more important than ever these days.

Your own grocer has Fels-Naptha

Fels-Naptha keeps white clothes white.

FELS-NAPTHA

MILK

The Present Supply of Milk Seems to Indicate Per Capita Allowance of About One-Third Quart a Day

Use every ounce of the available milk supply in every form.

Increase the use of cheese, which utilizes the milk more completely than does butter.

Lessen the waste of buttermilk and skim milk. Buy whole milk, not cream; use the top for coffee, cereal, etc., and the rest for drinking or cooking.

Use all sour milk, if clean and wholesome.

Utilize the whey from cheese in bread making.

Substitute water ices for creams as desserts.

Green leaf vegetables may partly replace butter.

Save on butter by serving smaller portions, serving again when more is really desired. Do not stint, however, on butter for children, especially if they do not get an abundance of milk (unskimmed).

Use no butter in cooking.

The Useful Tunic.

The tunic is to make an important feature in the winter's fashions, and women who have last season's gowns that they would like to remake will be glad of this. Very often a wide skirt can be cut off to make a successful tunic and worn over a narrower skirt of contrasting material. A variety of tunic designs are offered.

The hustler sometimes comes to grief. But that is better than waiting for it to overtake you.

Nerv-Worth druggists' customers.
Here is a late proof.

"I had been a great sufferer from indigestion for eight years. Could find nothing to help me until I tried Nerv-Worth, recommended by Mr.
Watson, who had used it. My improvement was very rapid before using one bottle and I do not have

Orders Secretary
TO SUSPEND ROUTINE
IF FOUND NECESSARY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, Dec. 26.—Aroused by reports of a shortage of winter clothing for national army camps the senate military affairs committee today, in resuming its investigation into army conditions, adopted a resolution, requesting the Secretary of war to immediately ascertain conditions by wire, supply deficient troops and suspend departmental routine if necessary by direct purchases from sources near the camps.

The committee closed its doors today. General O'Ryan's statement regarding the American expedition abroad. His testimony regarding sufficiency of rifle and other ordnance equipment, clothing and other supplies of General Pershing's forces, the committee felt, should not be made public.

Believe Crew of the Tuscora Lost at Sea

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
New York, Dec. 26.—The American steamship Tuscora, formerly a large vessel and requisitioned by the United States shipping board, for Atlantic service, together with her entire crew of 35 men is believed to have been lost at sea somewhere north of Cape Breton Island, according to advices received in shipping circles today from Nova Scotia.

The crew of the Tuscora was recruited in New England ports. She was commanded by Captain Crowell from Cape Cod.

Before being requisitioned by the shipping board she was owned by the Lehigh Valley Transportation Company and operated between lake ports. In September the vessel with its crew was out in two on the lakes, towed through the Welland canal and rejoined at Montreal from where she steamed for New York December 6. The last word of her was received when she passed Father Point on the St. Lawrence the following day.

Today's advices were received in shipping circles that parts of a bridge, pilothouse and deck timbers from a large steamer had washed on Cape Breton Island.

AMERICAN BOYS IN FRANCE CELEBRATE XMAS IN SNOWSTORM

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
With the American Army in France, Tuesday, Dec. 25.—The American expeditionary force in France celebrated Christmas in a howling snowstorm which rolled in from the mountains in the early hours, continued all day and showed no signs of abating tonight. Despite the difficulties due to the storm few features of any program were cancelled for most of the festivities were held indoors.

Even the celebration at the quarters of the American air squadron was carried out although a blinding snow swirled into the hangar where a tree had been erected for the children of a nearby village. There, Santa swooped down from clouds dripping white and with a pack on his back stepped from an airplane.
His goggles, cap, red suit and sack were dusted heavily with snowflakes, much to the delight of one hundred small children who huddled within the shelter of the hangar.

It is doubtful that children anywhere had ever seen such a sight before. When the youngsters had gathered at the hangar, Santa Claus, who was an American corporal, for into a big machine at a nearby hangar. The new off and fifty minutes later there was a whirl of engines over the children's heads and an airplane dropped to the snow covered field before them. The children had been told that Santa had abandoned his old timeworn sleigh for an airplane, but they did not believe it until they saw him come down from the skies.

In all the units entertaining children, each small guest received the present he most desired. There were at least a score of large community trees and many smaller ones in the zone where the presents were distributed.

Efforts were made to carry out the program of football games, but some of these had to be cancelled when the snow became too heavy.
While Christmas dinner did not approach that of Thanksgiving because of lack of turkeys and trimmings, the army managed to enjoy itself cheerfully.

Exhaust Supply of War Certificates
AT THE POSTOFFICE

The day before Christmas was a busy one at the Newark postoffice, added to the general rush of parcel post and general mail business this year's sale of war saving certificates and thrift stamps was stupendous.

The department's entire supply of war certificates, purchasable for $4.12 each, was disposed of—494 of them being sold, bringing in $2035.28, and Assistant Postmaster Farmer today stated they had orders for 300 more war certificates, which they are trying to fill, but the department seems to be general over the country as the local department has many telegrams and requisitions from other towns, who thought Newark might have an over-supply. The thrift stamps also sold rapidly, there being 273 sold Monday, netting about $1,000. The sale of war certificates and thrift stamps were sold to individuals who were investing money or buying gifts.

The deliveries of Christmas packages were well cleaned up Christmas day, and the entire Christmas business was disposed of this morning.

Soldier at Somme
Lectures Tonight

Major McGinnis, better known as "Bomber" McGinnis of the 2nd Canadian Infantry, who led a job in the battle of the Somme, will give a talk at Taylor Hall at 7:30 o'clock tonight, telling of his experiences in the war, which without doubt will prove to be very interesting to his hearers. Major McGinnis is here through the efforts of the B. & O. R. and everyone is invited to be present.

Berries That Renewed Vigor.
Toward the middle of the fifteenth century, it is related, a poor Arab was traveling in Abyssinia. Finding himself weak and weary, he stopped near a grove. For fuel wherewith to cook his rice, he cut down a tree that happened to be covered with dried berries.
His meal being cooked and eaten, the traveler discovered that these half-burnt berries were fragrant. He collected a number of them, and, on crushing them with a stone, found that the aroma was increased to a great extent. While wondering at this, he accidentally let the substance fall into a can that contained his scanty supply of water. A miracle! The almost purified water was purified. He brought it to his lips; it was fresh and agreeable; and after a short rest the traveler so far recovered his strength and energy as to be able to resume his journey. The lucky Arab gathered as many berries as he could, and, having arrived at Aden, informed the mufti of his discovery. That worthy was an inveterate opium smoker, who had been suffering for years from the influence of the poisonous drug. He died an infusion of the roasted berries, and was so delighted at the recovery of his former vigor that in gratitude to the tree he called it camuba, which in Arabic signifies "force."

All Clear Now.
Old Farmer (to soldier son, just returned from the Front): "Well, Dick, what be these things like that there's so much talk about?"
Son: "Why, they're just wobbly thingamabobs, full o' what-you-may-call 'em, and they blaze away like billyo!"
Old Farmer: "Ay, I heard they were wonderful things, but I never could get any details afore."—Tit-Bits.

Bear Breaks Loose

Pet Was Killed After Defeat of Man
Wrestling.
"Steve" the big bear who had for many months been a pet of the firemen at Tacoma, and known to many persons throughout the Northwest, recently broke the big iron chain that had held him captive and started out to see the sights.

Several persons were attacked by the bear, but none seriously hurt.
One of the clerks at the Northern Pacific headquarters ventured too near and Steve took him on for a wrestling match. Standing on his hind feet, the bear was almost as tall as the man, and gave a demonstration of how a bear can rough a person. The man finally escaped into a nearby building.
The bear was later shot and killed.

ONLY AMERICAN WHO EVER ARRESTED QUEEN

Capt. Paul Smith has the distinction of being the only American to ever arrest a queen.

On January 18, 1895, Captain Smith, then a sergeant in the army of the provisional government of Hawaii under the direction of President Sanford B. Dole, arrested Queen Liliuokalani, lately deceased, and held her prisoner in Iolani palace for eight months, during which time she was tried and convicted of treason and sentenced to pay a fine of $5,000 and serve five years at hard labor. After a year in prison she was given a full pardon.

Captain Smith served with the American army in the Philippines, receiving several medals and honorable mention for bravery.

REV. L. C. EMERICK
ACCEPTS A CALL TO MEIGS COUNTY, O.

Rev. L. C. Emerick, pastor of the North Side Church of Christ, and Newark's youngest minister, has tendered his resignation to his congregation, which was accepted with much reluctance, and the same will take effect Jan. 15. The young minister will leave at that time to accept the pastorate of a congregation at Rockville, Meigs county, O., the largest church in the county. The congregation, as well as the salary, is much larger than the local charge.

REV. L. C. EMERICK.

During his brief residence of 15 months in Newark, Rev. Emerick has made many warm friends. He has accepted nearly half a hundred members to the church and greatly increased the bible class as well as paying off nearly half the church's indebtedness. He was married a short time ago to Miss Pearl Baughman of Jonnston, O.

Rev. Emerick accepted the Rockville charge from three which was tendered him, one in a college town in Northwestern Ohio and another at the county seat of Brown county. He will take with him the best wishes of a large host of friends.

Rev. Emerick has also applied for a position as a chaplain in the United States army, but as the quota of his church denomination is filled there is no vacancy at present, but he has been informed that just as soon as such a vacancy takes place his application will be given due consideration.

SALVATION ARMY CHRISTMAS TREE

The Salvation Army Christmas tree and entertainment for poor children will be given on Friday evening.

The program will consist of recitations, Christmas songs, steeplechase, etc. The children will be given toys, apples, nuts, oranges and other Christmas accessories.

ASSOCIATED PRESS GIVES MEN NICE CHRISTMAS GIFT

In recognition of their loyalty and efficiency, employees of the Associated Press in the United States were told in a message last night by General Manager Melville L. Stone that after the first of the year the life of each will be insured for $1,000 while in the service of the company or in military service. Heirs or dependents will be beneficiaries.

In congratulating employees, Manager Stone says the year has been one of unparalleled trials, and the men have met the increased responsibilities with faithfulness and intelligence.

It is a good plan to forgive and forget, but some people can never forget themselves.

ARE TO CONSIDER
WAR TIME POLICY
COLLEGE SPORTS

(Associated Press Telegram)
New York, Dec. 26.—Many important questions affecting intercollegiate athletics during the war will be considered at the twelfth annual convention of the National Collegiate Athletic association here on Friday, the program of which was made public today by Frank W. Nicholson of Wesleyan University, secretary of the organization.

The executive committee will meet tomorrow night. It is anticipated that messages as to the war time policy of college sports will be sent to the convention by President Wilson, Secretary Baker and Secretaries Daniels.

At many colleges the convention's action will determine the athletic policy to be followed this spring. Among the subjects to be discussed are:

What more can the colleges do to help win the war? and "reconstruction of athletics after the war."

OHIO SOLDIERS AT CAMP SHERIDAN
RECEIVED PRESENTS

Camp Sheridan, Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 26.—Federalized Ohio National Guard soldiers in Camp Sheridan received more than 100,000 Christmas gifts from the folks back home. Every man in the big camp received at least one present from the Buckeye state. Many of them received dozens of presents. Governor Cox will not return to Ohio until next week as he is going on a hunting trip.

Camp Sherman, O., Dec. 26.—Ohio soldiers here had a fine turkey dinner Christmas day. One-third of the boys went home, but 20,000 remained here in camp. Each Y. M. C. A. building had a Christmas tree. An effort is being made to have Harry Lauder come here next Sunday.

CORN SEED IN OHIO SAID TO BE SCARCE

Wooster, O., Dec. 26.—Ohio has not been struck so hard for good seed-corn for many years, and unless means are taken at once to locate what is fit for planting and to store it properly Buckeye farmers will cut a small crop next year.

The prediction by specialists of the state experiment station regarding such a serious shortage points out the necessity for testing all seed-corn for germination. A good-looking ear may be a failure entirely when planted next spring because cold weather has killed the germ. Thirty-nine per cent of the crop this year is reported soft and unmarketable. Early frosts and the recent severe freeze account for such a dark outlook on the crop of 1918.

An Ohio farmer can have his corn tested free by the Ohio Experiment station here if he sends about 100 kernels from 100 representative ears, either old or new corn. Any supply kept from last year should also be tested. The station asks the farmer to send with the sample the name of the variety, when and where it was selected, how it has been kept and whether it was out in the cold this month. Any number of samples may be sent, if they are kept separate, and a report will be given the farmer on the value of the corn for planting.

Each farmer is also asked to tell how much seed like the sample he sends can be offered for sale and at what price. Buyers can thus be told where to go for good seed next year.

TO LAUNCH DRIVE FOR PROHIBITION

Washington, Dec. 26.—The Anti-Saloon League of America, encouraged by the notable victory of the "drys" in obtaining the submission of a prohibition amendment to the federal constitution, will launch a new drive in congress this winter for legislation which, if it passes, will place the United States on an absolutely dry basis during the remainder of the war.

The plan involves the immediate stopping of the manufacture of beer and light wines and the closing of all saloons by the prohibition of the sale of whiskey and other intoxicants. The legislation is intended to do by statutory law that which President Wilson has authority to do in the food control act. The food act gives the president power to declare absolute prohibition. He already has stopped the distillation of whiskey and he has the same authority to stop the manufacture of beer and light wines and to prohibit the sale of all forms of intoxicants.

ON WORD OF HONOR
CONVICTS GO HOME

Wauvay, N. J., Dec. 26.—Unattended and bound only by their word of honor to return more than 40 of the men serving time in the State Reformatory spent Christmas at their homes in various parts of the state.

The men received the leave as a reward for their good conduct and hard work in rebuilding the road from Georgetown to Wrighttown which was wrecked by the heavy trucks used in constructing Camp Dix.

The men are to return today. Plans are being made to permit a similar number of men to spend the New Year holiday at home.

SOLDIERS' LETTERS

Editor of the Advocate:—I am in receipt of your letter and medal and wish to express my thanks to you and to tell you it is highly appreciated by me. I will also say we are all happy and going to do our best as we know ours is a just cause and to establish an everlasting peace for our nation and all other nations. So with holiday greetings to all, I am yours respectfully, Wm. Giblin, Pvt., 1st class, Co. C, First Field Bn., Signal Corps, Camp Alfred Vail.

The man who has one-sided views isn't so bad if he only looks on the bright side.

RED CROSS MEMBERSHIP
NOW TOTALS 18,000,000

Washington, Dec. 26.—With an enrollment of nearly 13,000,000 new recruits indicated as the result of the Christmas drive directors of the American Red Cross estimated the organization's total membership at 18,000,000. The new enrollment augments a regular membership of 5,000,000 announced a week ago at the opening of the Christmas campaign.

Reports announcing the success of the undertaking said the drive would be continued this week in several sections and that 15,000,000 new members—the maximum fixed by the directors—probably would be enrolled.
